We are pleased to announce the creation of a new company; Richard Fowler Associates Ltd. (www.rfadesign.com)

Creative Director Richard Fowler is recognised as one of the leading museum and exhibition designers and has over 35 years' experience in the public and private sectors. Richard Fowler has retained the creative team from his previous group, RFA Designers, whose first class credentials are recognised with a nomination for the Permanent Exhibition category of the Museums & Heritage Awards 2009 (judging 13th May) for the innovative exhibitions at Stockwood Discovery Centre.

The new company becomes part of a much larger organisation, the ID Ess group of companies (www.idesscd.co.uk) whose main workshops are in Harlow, Essex. The ID Ess group continues to grow its cultural development, museum and exhibition fit-out division to complement its successful retail operations.

RFA Design and The ID Ess Group offer a unique design-and-build option for the museum visitor centre and exhibition industry, with vast knowledge and understanding of the sector.

The RFA Design team will operate from West Yorkshire with prestigious offices at Dean Clough, Halifax.

Richard Fowler Associates Ltd. was incorporated on 8th April 2009 under company number; 6873693

You can visit us at stand number F8 at the Museums & Heritage Show, Earls Court, 13th and 14th May.
